

NRI

Neurologic Rehabilitation Institute at Brookhaven Hospital

Vision.
Values.
Commitment.

Neurobehavioral Rehabilitation for individuals with difficult-to-manage behaviors following traumatic brain injury or neurologic disease

- Traumatic Brain Injuries
- Anoxic Brain Injuries
- Stroke
- Neurological Diseases
- Post Brain Surgery Problems
- Seizure Disorders
- Fetal Alcohol Syndrome

Complex Care Rehabilitation for the individual with a severe neurological injury or disease who requires ongoing medical and nursing care in addition to comprehensive rehabilitation

Complex Care Rehabilitation

- Occupational Therapy
- Behavioral Therapy
- Speech/Cognitive Therapy
- Neurology
- Internal Medicine
- Speech Therapy
- Recreational Therapy
- Neuropsychology
- Medical Management
- Social Work
- Counseling
- Dietary Specialists
- 24 hour Nursing Care
- Internal Case Management

Dual Diagnosis Rehabilitation Program for the individual with behavioral health and/or substance abuse problems in addition to a neurological injury or disease

Intensive Neurobehavioral Rehabilitation

- High level of nursing and behavioral supervision
- Medication management
- Occupational therapy
- Speech/Cognitive therapy
- Behavioral therapy
- Vocational services
- Support for social re-entry
- Personalized treatment plan

Transitional and Supported Living Programs provide community residence and rehabilitation for individuals living with the effects of a neurological injury or disease

Residential Rehabilitation Programs

- Wheelchair accessibility throughout the home
- Multiple areas for recreation and socialization within the home
- Opportunities for socialization, recreation and community integration
- Educational opportunities
- Close to Brookhaven Hospital

Transitional Living Centers

- Highly structured program and controlled environment offer opportunities for relearning skills essential for a return to independence
- Focus on pragmatic and functional activities required to maintain and support independence
- Skilled Rehabilitation Team provides a comprehensive program of services

Residential Rehabilitation Programs

- Apartment-based living
- Private bedrooms and bathrooms
- Atrium greenhouse
- Private garden

NRI's Positive Values for Living with a Disability

- Assisting the person to adjust to the changes created by their disability
- Relearning skills lost through the injury
- Enhancing ability to self-regulate
- Learning to make the right decisions
- Re-entering a positive and active lifestyle
- Helping family members cope

- 18 & Up
- Multi-Level Rehab
- TBI Dual Diagnosis
- Residential Rehab
- Accept Out-of-State Medicaid
- JCAHO certified

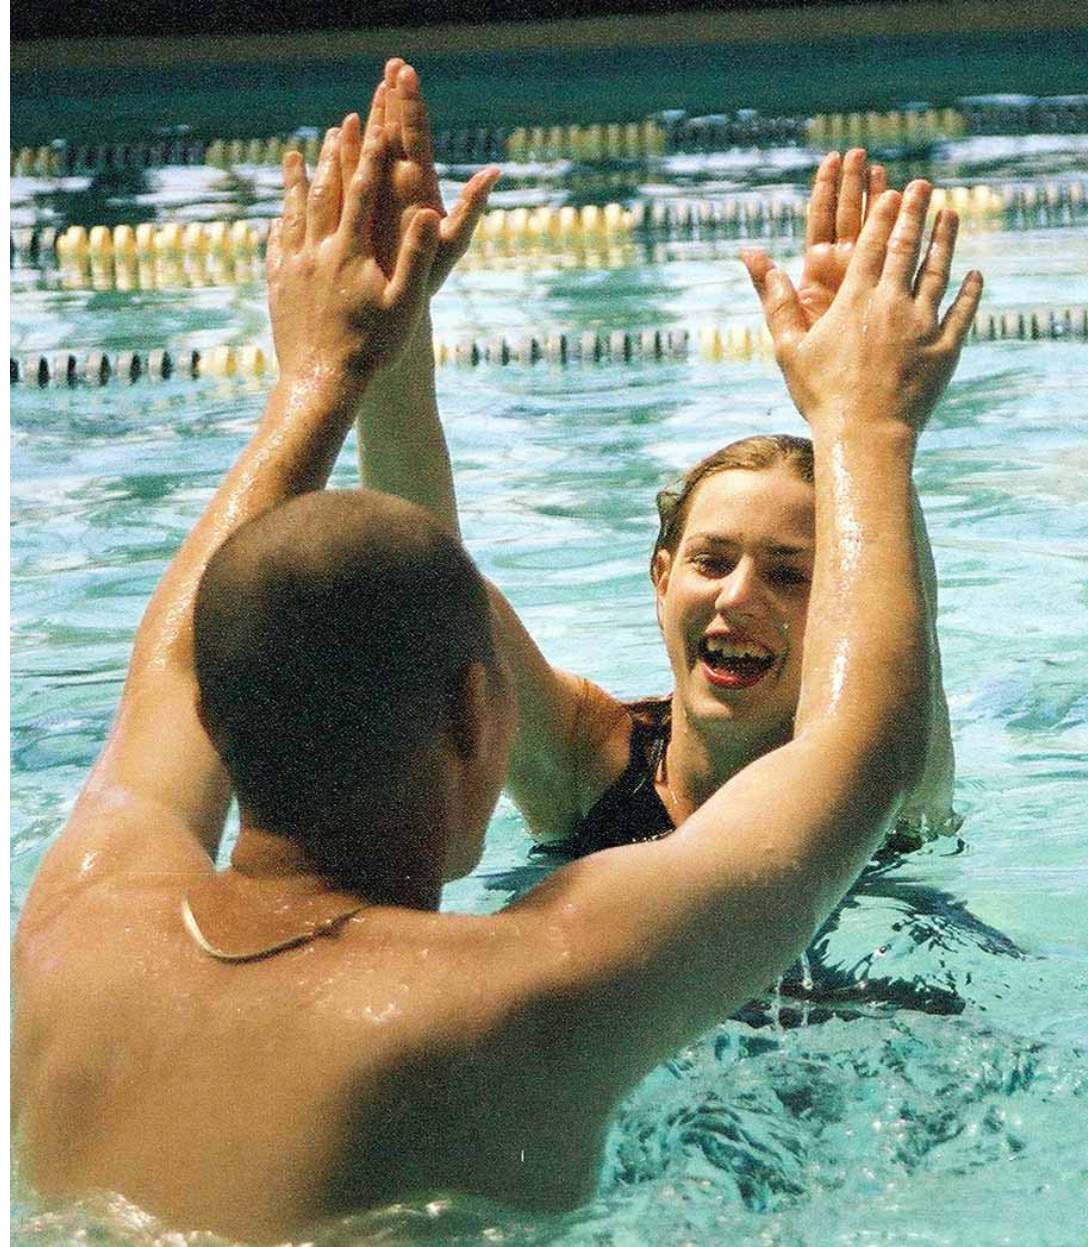

NRI's Continuum of Care

- Intensive Inpatient Rehabilitation for Neurobehavioral and Complex Care
- Medical Detox for Substance Abuse and Brain Injury
- Behavioral Health and Neurologic Rehabilitation program for Dual Diagnosis
- Extended care programs
- Transitional Living
- Supported Living

NRI's Programs Offer Specialized Help

- Traumatic brain injury at all levels of severity
- Neurobehavioral and cognitive deficits
- Ongoing medical care needs
- Neurologic diseases and conditions: CVA; “stroke”; toxic encephalopathy; anoxia; post neurologic surgery
- Seizure disorders
- Developmental disabilities

Superior leadership and direction helps produce excellent results

- Neurology, psychiatry and internal medicine provide direction and focus to the rehabilitation team
- Program direction provided by senior rehabilitation professionals
- Qualified, experienced and trained rehabilitation team members
- The multiple resources of a specialty hospital

Opportunities, not challenges

- Focus on positive learning
- Effective interpersonal approach
- Skills reacquisition model
- Functional and pragmatic
- Participation in community activities
- Respect for each individual

Identifying goals, achieving success

- Returning to independence
- Adjusting to disabilities
- Being productive
- Enjoying life
- Sharing with family and friends
- Moving ahead

Rehabilitation for a Neurological Disability

- Excellent, coordinated medical care and direction
- Round the clock nursing personnel
- Supportive and caring staff
- Qualified rehabilitation team
- Success oriented programs
- A commitment to excellence

Neurologic Rehabilitation Institute at Brookhaven Hospital

- Accredited by JCAHO
- Licensed by the Oklahoma State Department of Health
- Over twenty years of helping people with neurologic disabilities achieve success

